Regarding the Reorganization of the Rainier U.S. Funds into the Hennessy Funds

Why was this reorganization proposed?

Rainier Investment Management, LLC (“Rainier”) completed a strategic review of the management and operations of the Rainier U.S. Funds and determined that it would be advisable to pursue a reorganization with another fund group who it believed could successfully manage the investments of current shareholders of the Rainier U.S. Funds. That search led Rainier to Hennessy Advisors, Inc. (“Hennessy Advisors”), a company who Rainier believes is focused on providing high-quality investment management services and customer service to their existing Hennessy Funds shareholders and who is well suited to acquire the assets of the Rainier U.S. Funds.

What fund will I be invested in when the reorganization takes place?

Shareholders of the Rainier Mid Cap Equity Fund and the Rainier Small/Mid Cap Equity Fund will now be shareholders of Hennessy Cornerstone Mid Cap 30 Fund. Shareholders of the Rainier Large Cap Equity Fund will now be shareholders of the Hennessy Cornerstone Large Growth Fund.
